Re: Correspondence Received October 18, 2003

Dear Mr. Ingels:

Please be advised that I am in receipt of the above. Thank you.

On October 17, 2003, I spoke with Kimberly Stieritz about your situation. I informed her that I couldn't just take a case of this nature, nor co-counsel with an attorney I really do not know (Tim Wilson). As I indicated to Ms. Stieritz, Mr. Wilson called my office for assistance. I provided him with examples of pleadings and instructed him on the best approaches with the courts. I further reviewed the brief's content for clarity and issues. Because I do not have any information about the specifics of your case, I could only provide technical advice to Mr. Wilson.

If you want me to review the transcripts and provide an opinion, I can do so. My fee is $1,250.00 ($250.00 per hour x 5 hours for review and written opinion/analysis).

Again, I cannot adequately give you any direction until I review relevant documents. If further questions or concerns, do not hesitate to write this office.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Torian

Dear Clerk:

Enclosed please find originals and one copy of revised notice and original and twelve copies of revised affidavit to replace those I sent for delivery on Friday June 27, 2003.

Thank you very much for your help with correcting this filing. Please let me know if there are any other problems. I will call you in the afternoon on Monday to confirm that the filing has been completed.

Sincerely,

Timothy A. Wilson
